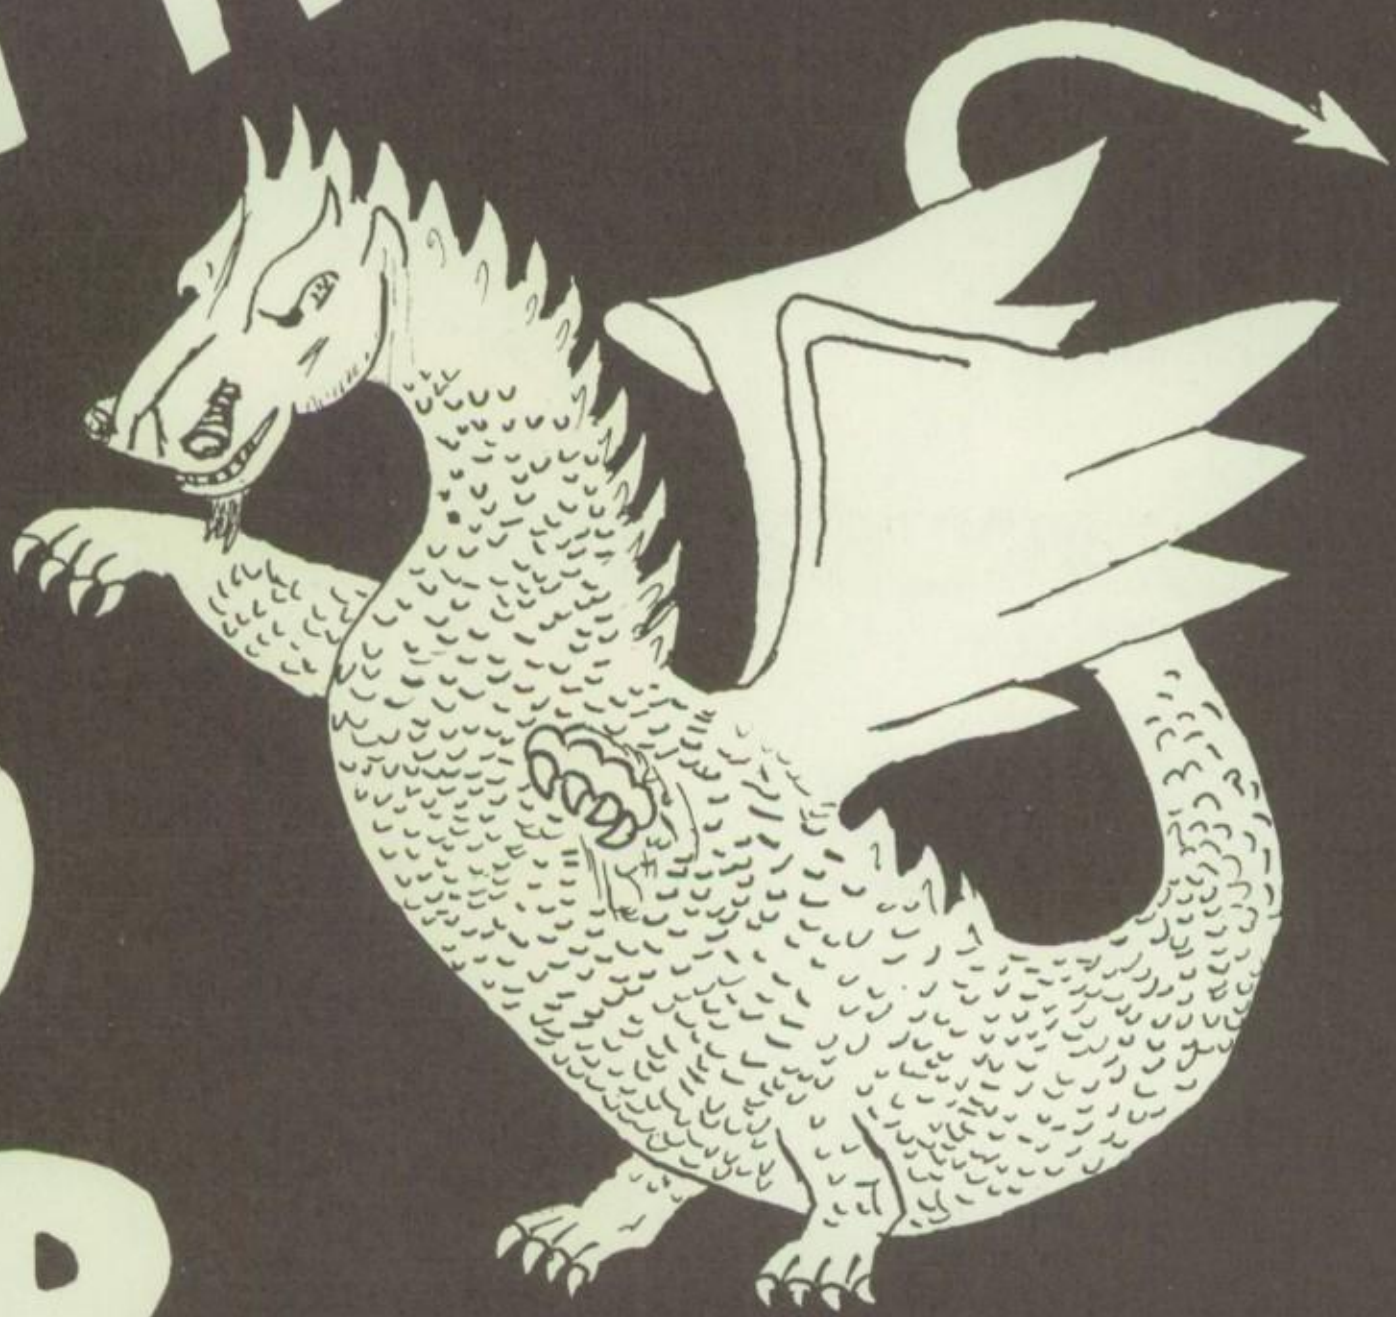
THE DRAGON '56



DEDICATION

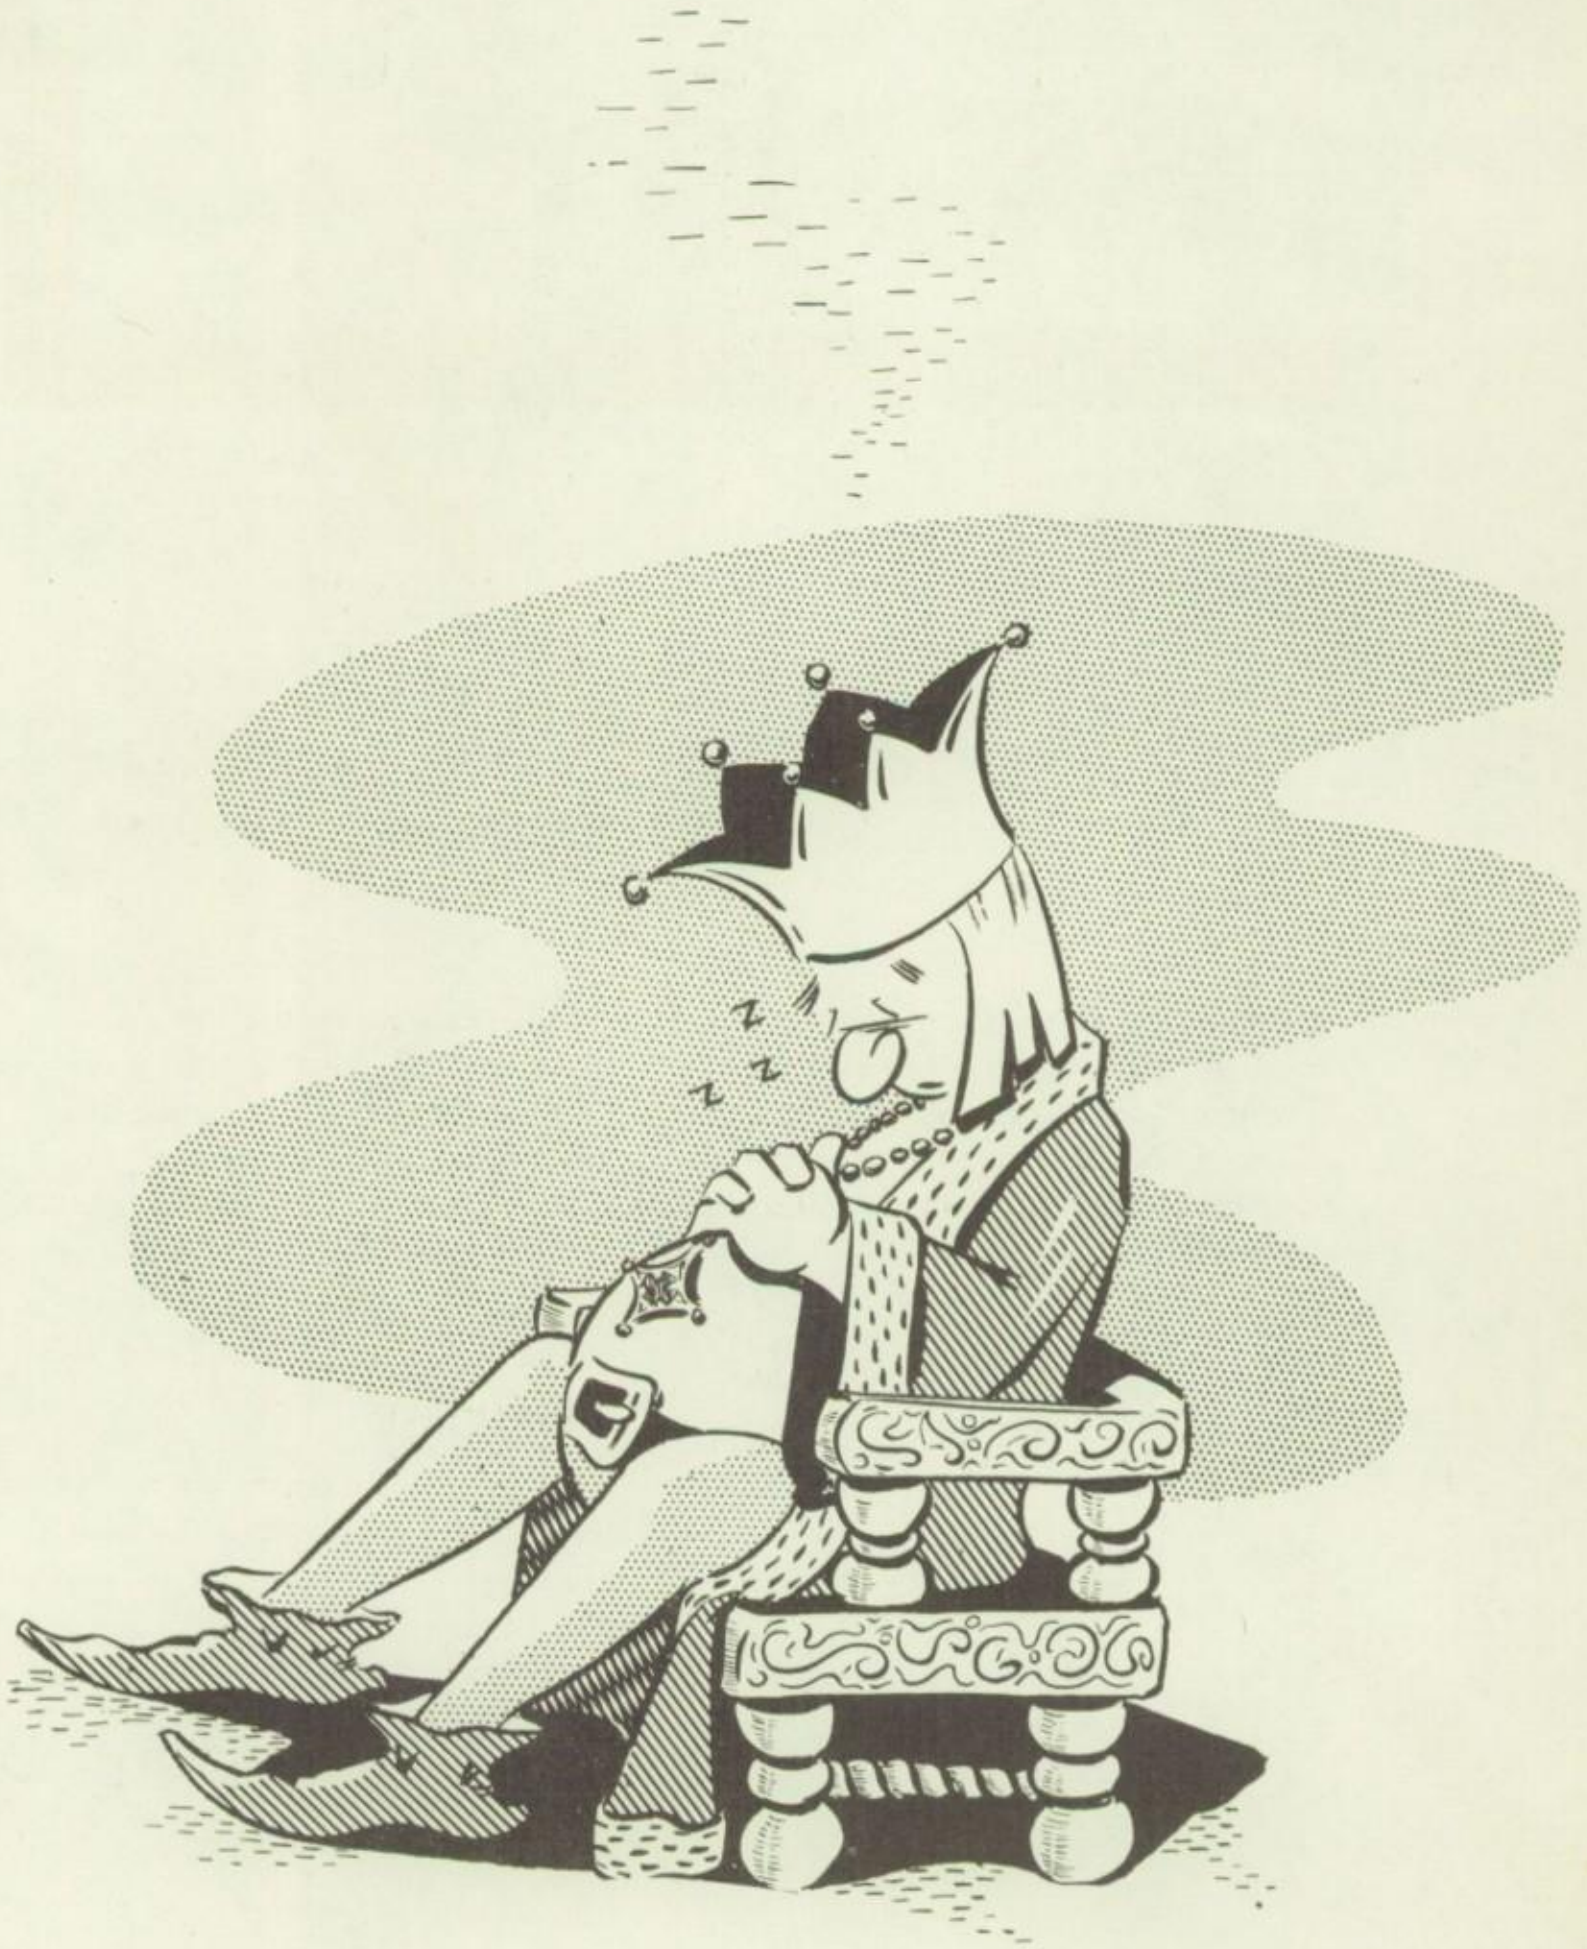
To the subscribers and advertisers:

Without your cooperation, assistance and interest, we could not have created this yearbook.

May it serve as a reminder of wonderful school day experiences and friendships.

The Dragon Staff

Administration



The planning, cooperation, and work necessary to produce a fine yearbook such as "The Dragon of 1956" is recognized by all of us. The Staff and Advisors deserve our special thanks. Accordingly, may we recognize the importance of planning and selecting things which are proper in our daily living habits, so that our Great Master above may be well pleased with our edition of life as we have lived it.

O. F. Perry

Superintendent

I wish to take this opportunity to express my deepest gratitude to the High School students and faculty. Their cooperation, integrity, and industrious attitude has made me feel that we are all working towards the same goal--that of becoming better and more useful citizens.

Norman Whitlow

Principal, Senior High

Congratulations to the Annual Staff. To the Seniors we express the wish for success in every worthwhile endeavor.

C. T. Berkman

Principal, Junior High

Congratulations, Seniors, and sincere wishes for a future of success and happiness.

Mrs. Ford,

I really can not say that I have learned any science under you, but certain due to not any fault of yours. However, I want you to know that I value some of the out together are people like you. the understanding and faith you have and I have relieved so many times from just looking up at you while sitting in class many morning. when some one stepped many times to give me something that will carry me all through the day and help me smile.. May the rest of your thing be your always and may God always be with you and yours. I will never forget you for how wonderful a person you are. "thank you" is such a small word and not when someone means it as much as I do, then it becomes a very large word.

I remain always

Dana Whitney

Some of the things I have learned this year will help me in later life. I have enjoyed being in your class. God bless you and yours always.
